ABOUT KGERC

Kaveri Gifted Education and Research Center has been working in the field of gifted education for 12 years. We have been designing overnight camps for kids to build skills and foster holistic growth. We follow the Kaveri Nurturing Model, which is based on Indian Philosophy, to nurture the potential of Buddhimaan and Pratibhashali children.

STEM

This 5-day residential camp is an inquiry-driven programme for those who demonstrate a high level of interest and ability in the pure sciences. Experts will lead project-based, hands-on investigations to build scientific temper and critical thinking. Domain experts will mentor small student groups towards research-oriented learning experiences.
